

When the New Councils Meet

The first meeting of the new Carrick-on-Shannon No 1 Council will be held on Thursday next, the 10th inst., when the election of Chairmen and the co-option of three Councillors will be the principal business for transaction.

Carrick-on-Shannon No 2 new Council will meet for the same purpose on Monday, the 14th inst.

Leitrim County Council will meet on the 19th inst., when the election of a chairman and vice-chairman, the co-option of two councillors, and the appointment of Committees for the different institutions over which they have control, will be made. The signing of the collectors warrants and the issuing of the rate books for the collection of the rates for the ensuing year, adjourned at the last meeting of the old Council, will then come up for consideration.

With the exception of Mr J O'Rourke, CoC, Carrigallen, the Council is an entirely new body.

a Carrick-on-Shannon No 1 Council contains three of the old men, namely—Messrs P Beirne, E Rutledge, and P Reynolds, who have been selected by Sinn Fein.

Carrick-on-Shannon No 2 Council will comprise two of the old Councillors—Messrs P Neary [who has been elected a member of new Roscommon County Council] and M McDermott, Drumlion, who have been selected to represent the Sinn Fein interests.
