

---

County Council Elections

---

Mr Cotter, County Councillor, stated, at the Bantay Board of Guardians, that the Sinn Fein programme from Headquarters, as regards the County and District elections, was that all the old Councillors should stand aside, and that the young men of no means [Sinn Fein's], who will not recognise the authority of the Local Government Board, should be elected.

All the guardians present agreed to do