

L G ELECTIONS

Many of the old representatives on the District Councils and County Council in Leitrim are said to be going forward for re-election at the elections in May. In all cases young men, professing Sinn Fein beliefs, will be nominated, and the elections as a result will be interesting and surrounded with much speculation as to the result.